IMPORTANT--PLEASE NOTE: To qualify for this DoD-sponsored scholarship you must be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States and be a full-time undergraduate at an accredited institution. Scholarship funds may be used to cover tuition and tuition-related materials, such as, but not limited to summer tuition, books, supplies, laboratory fees and related materials. Scholarship funds are not authorized for the purchase of a personal computer or software. (NOTE: JSHS scholarship recipients who attend service academies receive full tuition thru the U.S. Government. Therefore, the JSHS scholarship is not available to support tuition costs. Other legitimate expenses (as above) may be supported through the JSHS scholarship. Students who attend service academies should submit a written request to the Academy of Applied Science that details these legitimate expenses.)

To claim this scholarship please complete this form and return it prior June 1 (the year scholarship is awarded), whether you are entering college this fall or not, to the Academy of Applied Science, JSHS Scholarship Program. If you have not selected a college, please note that your scholarship will be held for a maximum of four years from the time of the award; however, you must return this form by June 1 (the year scholarship is awarded) to establish your scholarship account. For scholarship winners with multiple year awards a transcript must be provided after the first year of college and every year thereafter, showing a GPA of 3.0 or greater and a declared major of science, technology, engineering or mathematics.

Note: Total scholarship awards available through JSHS are capped at a maximum total of $30,000 per individual student winner.
