

TEACHER AWARD

The Junior Science and Humanities Symposium (JSHS) is pleased to continue the Teacher Award Program in recognition of educational excellence in STEM. This award is provided through the sponsorship of the U.S. Army, Navy and Air Force, and is administered by the Academy of Applied Science.

Funding in the amount of $500 has been set aside for each region. The award winning teacher should be an active participant in mentoring and encouraging student participation in STEM research and is eligible for the Teacher Award based upon either student placement in the regional research paper competition, or based upon an award process established by the JSHS Regional Director.
